

SHERMAN ANSWERS
SALISBURY'S NOTESECRETARY SHERMAN WRITES
A TART REPLY.

Great Britain in the Wrong—Has Led United States Authorities to Suppose That She Would Participate in the Sealing Conference, With Russia and Japan—Meeting to Be Held.

Washington, Oct. 13.—Secretary Sherman has written a reply to the note of Lord Salisbury expressing Great Britain's declination to take part in a Bering Sea conference in which Russia and Japan are to participate. The essential features of Mr. Sherman's reply have been sent by cable to the British government, and the reply in full is now on its way to the British authorities.

The answer states that the United States government views with astonishment the determination of Great Britain not to participate in a conference including Russia and Japan, and the statement is made that up to the 23d of last month the United States authorities had fully expected that the conference would proceed with Russia and Japan, as well as Great Britain, present, and that, in view of previous correspondence, the United States had confidently expected that Great Britain would take part in the conference, and that Russia and Japan would be represented, with the approval of Great Britain.

Besides the foregoing reply, and in view of the differences which have arisen, the state department suggests a conference in accordance with the terms of Lord Salisbury's agreement as he construes it—namely, between experts of Great Britain, the United States and Canada.

In the meantime preparations for the conference between the United States, Russia and Japan are proceeding, and the meeting will probably be held Oct. 20. The Japanese delegates, who are now en route from San Francisco, have decided to stop over two days at Chicago, and will not reach Washington until next Sunday night.

Democrats Win in Indianapolis.

Indianapolis, Ind., Oct. 13.—Thomas Taggart was Tuesday re-elected mayor of this city by 3,500 plurality. The Democrats also elected Charles E. Cox judge of the police court, Charles H. Stuckmeyer, city clerk, six councilmen at large and a majority of the fifteen ward councilmen. It is the first time since the adoption of the new city charter that a mayor has succeeded himself, and it is also the first time the city has elected officers since all the suburbs were annexed. The success of the Democratic ticket means that Taggart will be the Democratic nominee for governor two years from next fall. ## LAYMEN WIN A VICTORY.

Equal Representation Endorsed by the Rock River Methodist Conference.

Chicago, Oct. 13.—It was decided at the Rock River conference Tuesday to urge equal representation for the laymen at the next general conference. This is a victory for the methodist laity. The report of the committee appointed Monday submitted the following, which was unanimously adopted:

"Report No. 1: Your committee to which was referred the resolution presented by the representatives of the laymen's meeting held October 8, and also the resolutions concerning the same, desire to report that we recommend the adoption of the last named resolution as follows:

"Whereas, We have heard with pleasure the representatives of the laymen's meeting held at Chicago October 8, 1897; therefore, be it

"Resolved, That we do hereby express our sympathy with and pledge ourselves to co-operate in their efforts to secure equal representation in the general conference."

By an almost unanimous vote a change in the laws of the Rock River conference was also ordered, which means that the victory of the laity was complete.

In honor of the twenty-fifth year of his episcopacy and of his presence as presiding officer with his home conference Bishop Merrill was presented with a purse containing $150 in gold. Dr. Burns was given by the ministers of his district a gold watch, Rev. P. H. Swift offering it with words of eulogy.

Rev. William Forkel, of Oregon, was chosen a conference evangelist.

The new presiding elders of the Rock River Conference are as follows: Rev. J. M. Cadwell, of Park Avenue Church, Chicago; Rev. W. H. Holmes, of Wick Park Church, Chicago; Rev. C. E. Mandeville, of the First Church, Elgin.

For a transfer of presiding eldership the district: Rev. Dr. H. G. Jackson, of the present Chicago northern district, to the southern district.

The committee on civil and religious liberty reported a resolution to the effect that the conference "recognize the right of organization among all toilers for mutual welfare and that it unqualifiedly condemn the prohibition of this privilege." The report was adopted.

Pleads that She Was Insane.

Omaha, Neb., Oct. 13.—The testimony by which Mrs. John Fitzgerald, who qualified for $100,000 on Defaulter Bartley's bonds, hopes to escape liability was submitted Tuesday. She declared that the bond was presented to her a day after her husband died, and that she was insane at the time. She has no recollection of having signed the instrument. The other bondsmen assert that if Mrs. Fitzgerald's signature is not legal, then the whole bond is illegal. The bondsmen rely upon this to allow them to escape, even if they fail to get out by showing that Governor Holcomb knew of the shortage at the close of the first term, and yet accepted the defaulter's bond for a second term.

SPAIN SENDS WORD
THAT END IS NEARCOSFIDENT THE WAR IN CUBA
WILL SOON BE ENDED.

Rap at the United States—The Uprising Would Have Been Ended Long Ago But for the Aid Afforded the Rebels by American Filibusters—Cabinet Meets.

Madrid, Oct. 13.—It is semi-officially announced that the reply of Spain to the note presented by the United States minister, General Stewart L. Woodford, has been drafted by the minister for foreign affairs, Senor Gulin, and will be submitted to the cabinet at its meeting to-day.

The reply, it is said, will say that Spain is unable to fix exactly the date when the war will be over, but the ministers are persuaded it will not be long, because the situation of the rebels is critical and the efforts of the Spanish troops are sure of success. Owing to the rebel situation and the concession of autonomy, administrative and economic, the government hopes actual hostilities will end soon.

Spain, it is continued, thinks the reforms and the activity of the Spanish troops are sufficient elements to secure the immediate pacification of the island, which, it is asserted, "would have been more rapid if the rebels had not had the succor of filibusters who, under the shelter of the American flag, have contributed to maintain the state of affairs."

The government has decided that General Primo de Rivera is to retain command in the Philippine islands in order that he may initiate the proposed reforms and reorganize the colony.

CITIES OF THE FUTURE.

Rosette Picture Is Drawn by the Rev. Samuel G. Smith.

Battle Creek, Mich., Oct. 13.—Three thousand persons testified their interest in municipal reform by attending the opening session in this city Tuesday night of the interstate civic philanthropic conference. The feature of the session was the address delivered by Rev. Samuel G. Smith, D. D., president of the conference and professor of sociology in the University of Minnesota, in which he outlined the work to be done by the delegates and painted a rooseate picture of the city of the future.

Dr. Smith spoke at length on municipal matters, especially in their relation to home influences, education, philanthropy, organized charities, foreign-born citizens, and crime. He said there were three ways of aiding the masses—palliative, curative and preventive. To give beggar food, he said, is palliative; to make him earn all he eats is curative, to train a right from childhood is preventive.

"CANNON-BALL" HELD
BY TEXAS BANDITSDARING WORK OF ROBBERS
NEAR AUSTIN.

Rob Only the Passengers—Express Safe on the "Cannon Ball" Resists All Efforts to Open It—Conductor Slightly Wounded—Affair Takes Place in Broad Daylight.

Austin, Tex., Oct. 13.—Tuesday afternoon at 5:30 o'clock in broad daylight and within twelve miles of the corporate limits of this city the south-bound "cannon-ball" train on the International & Great Northern railroad, consisting of mail, baggage and express cars and three coaches loaded with passengers, was held up by four men and robbed.

The conductor of the train, Thomas Healy, was shot by the robbers while resisting them, but was not seriously wounded. One of the passengers had his shirt collar carried away by a pistol ball that was aimed at his neck and another received a bullet wound in the hand.

The passengers were robbed of some $200 in money. The bandits attempted to break the safe in the express car, but were unsuccessful.

After securing the money they uncoupled the engine from the train and started off down the track. Having gone several miles, they set the lever at a moderate speed and left the engine to the flag station at Duval, four miles below, and was there captured.

The station agent returned to the scene of the robbery with the engineer, secured the train and came on to this city, arriving here shortly after dusk. The officers have been notified and have gone to the scene of action with bloodhounds to locate the robbers.

MORE FEVER IN TEXAS.

Houston Schools Closed and San Antonio Said to Have One Case. New Orleans, La., Oct. 13.—The yellow fever seems to have settled in several points of Texas. First Galveston was pronounced an infected port. Late Monday night Dr. Guiteras declared that he had found four cases of yellow fever at Houston, and the advices from Texas are that San Antonio has one of the fever cases. The Houston cases, four in number, have brought about the closing of the schools of the city. Edwards, Miss., reports seven cases, a total of 423 to date, but no deaths were recorded Tuesday.

Alabama still holds to her severe mail restrictions. It has been five weeks since mail from this city has been delivered to people at Alabama points, for the state authorities have decided to accept no mails, whether fumigated or not. They will not even allow the mail to be run through the state in closed cars and be fumigated at Atlanta, and have so hedged themselves about with quarantine of the official and shotgun character that the coming of frost alone can solve the difficulty.

There were thirty-four new cases here Tuesday and three deaths.

SYNOD DECLARAS WAR.

Indiana Presbyterians Vigorously Attack State-Supported Schools.

Terre Haute, Ind., Oct. 13.—The Indiana synod of the Presbyterian church Tuesday declared war on the three state supported schools for higher education. President Burroughs of Wabash college delivered an address, in which he said the state board of education as now constituted is an "iniquitous trust."

The synod adopted a resolution commanding his address and urging the legislature to pass a law removing from the state board the presidents of Indiana university, Purdue Agricultural college and the state normal school.

The three institutions receive the proceeds of a special tax, amounting to $200,000 a year, and the church colleges hold that this gives them an undue advantage in the competition for attendance of students by enabling them to employ more and higher priced professors. It is also claimed that the board uses

NEW MAN IS CHOSEN FOR HART'S PLACECHARLES O. MERICA SAID TO
BE PICKED OUT.Appleton Superintendent of Schools
Decided Upon by the Board as the Best Man to Take Charge of the Waukesha School—Snyder In a New Position

Janesville people have been watching the Waukesha Industrial school matter and were surprised to hear that a new man has been brought out for Superintendent Hart's place. According to the Sentinel this man is Professor Charles O. Merica of Appleton, now supervising principal of the schools of that city. He was formerly president of a university in Missouri, came to Appleton as a professor in Lawrence university and later accepted the position in the public schools, which he now holds. He is about thirty-five years of age.

"We asked Professor Merica to meet us here today," said a member of the board last night, "and he has made a very favorable impression. He was highly recommended to us, and has made a study of sociological questions, is theoretically well informed on the problems to be solved in the Waukesha school, is a man of fine presence, great energy and I believe is just the man we have been looking for."

"No," in reply to a question, he had no political backing. We don't even know what his politics or religion is. We didn't ask."

McGregor Was Proposed.

A large number of names has been under consideration and after President Salisbury's resignation, it was thought that Prof. McGregor was likely to be chosen. He was strongly recommended and his ability as a teacher was undoubted. He is a man of about 55 and it was the opinion of the members of the board that at his age it would be difficult for him to take up the new line of work at Waukesha. It was evidently this opinion that a younger and more energetic man would be more likely to undertake and carry out successfully the difficult work which the reorganization of the school requires.

Not Dictated By the Governor.

Mr. Heg, in reply to a question as to his letter to Supt. Hart, printed yesterday, in which he is quoted as saying: "In regard to the matron, I am satisfied that the governor will insist upon having his candidate, Mrs. Telim, appointed to the position of head matron," made this statement:

"I wish to reiterate my former statement to the Sentinel, that Gov. Scofield did not dictate the appointment of Mrs. Telim. If that statement seems inconsistent with the statement in my letter to Mr. Hart, I can't help it. If I took that way to secure an appointment at Waukesha that was my business. I stand by it, and Mr. Hart well knows why that letter was written. He understands, and that is all I care to say now."

New System to be Tried.

"It should be remarked that the board has always made all appointments at the Waukesha school. The law requires it to make all the appointments. That fact seems to be overlooked. When the new superintendent is chosen, we shall try a new system and follow the governor's wishes. We shall allow the superintendent to suggest or recommend all appointments, but we shall still have to make the appointments as the law requires.

"All the changes we made in the Waukesha school were made for the good of the school. Mrs. Telim's appointment was particularly satisfactory to Supt. Hart. He wrote to us, saying that he was greatly pleased with her work, that she was showing great tact in the performance of her duties, and in fact commended her in the highest terms."

Snyder Succeeds Bishop

Gov. Scofield has appointed Clarence Snyder as the auxiliary member of the State Board of Control to succeed George W. Bishop of Rhinelander, who in turn succeeded Mr. Snyder as a regular member of the board.

Mr. Snyder has been appointed for no fixed term, and it is said that the appointment is only temporary, and that Samuel Campbell of Hudson, is slated for the position.

The duty of the auxiliary member is to inspect county jails and police stations and lock-ups in cities, under the direction of the governor and the Board of Control.

MORMON ELDER AT WORK

J. J. Simmons and J. E. Boyce Discuss
Their Plans for Winter

J. J. Simmons and J. E. Boyce, the Mormon elders, who were in this city early in the summer, will spend the winter in Appleton. They have previously been at Racine, Waukesha, Eau Claire, Oshkosh and Neenah and have organized a congregation at Fond du Lac. They will do house to house work and make quite a point on the fact that they support themselves.

As to polygamy Elder Simmons made the statement that it had never been practiced by more than 3 per cent. of the Mormon adherents, but had been altogether discontinued since the passage of laws forbidding it. The Mormons do not admit that polygamy is a mistake but obedience to rulers is more essential than religious rites, in their opinion.

GERMAN DAY FITLY MARKED

Members of Concordia Society Spent the Evening Very Enjoyably.

It has been 214 years since the vessel Concord landed with the first colony of German immigrants in Pennsylvania. Only sixty years after the landing of the Mayflower, therefore, the German movement began to which this country owes so much of its substantial growth and which gave it so highly valued a class of citizens.

In Concord Hall last night Janesville Germans marked the 214th anniversary of German day and afforded pleasure to a large audience.

The program was under the direction of Peter E. Neuses who made a few introductory remarks. There was music by Smith's orchestra, songs by the Concordia singing society led by John M. Kueff; song, "The Postillion," Miss Marie Muellenschlader, baritone solo, "Out on the Deep," Geo. L. Hatch, with orchestral accompaniment, and a comic song "A Lost Vocation" Peter E. Neuses. Mr. Neuses' song was in German and delighted the audience so greatly that he was forced to respond to an encore.

At the close of the program the floor was cleared for dancing and "Home Sweet Home" was not heard until one o'clock.

C. M. &amp; ST. P. AFTER TRAIN

Chicago Traffic To Be Sought and a New Janesville Train Discussed.

According to reports about the depot the C. M. &amp; St. P. road is preparing to reach out for a larger slice of the Chicago business.

Officials are not satisfied to let the Northwestern have it all and are considering the advisability of putting on another train. This would leave here at seven o'clock in the morning, and would really be the same train that now leaves Beloit at 7:30. The train from Chicago at night would get in about 7:30.

Considerably Chicago traffic is now handled by the 9:30 and 11:30 trains over the C. M. &amp; St. P. and the passenger officials think that there is a fair chance to get even a larger share.

A Blessing to the Babies of the Poor. An Enterprise That Should be Fostered.

The prospect is very encouraging that the distribution of pasteurized milk, devoid of all microbic germs, among the children of the poor at a nominal price, will become general in large cities of the United States. While this benevolence will be a blessing to the babies, our adult population enjoys an equally great one, the benefit conferred by Hostetter's Stomach Bitters upon persons afflicted with kidney and bladder complaints. Due to Bright's disease and diabetes is surely averted by this admirable preventive, which is also a safeguard against malaria, fever and rheumatism, and a thorough remedy for dyspepsia, constipation, liver complaint and nervousness. Diseases, insignificant at the outset, enlarge their proportions and capacity for destruction through neglect. Another point of importance in using this sterling remedy is, that it should be taken with regularity and persistence.

LUMBER GOING UP
AS TRADE BOOMS

LOCAL DEALERS FORCED TO ADVANCE PRICES.

Similar Action Has Been Taken Throughout the State, Stocks Being Low and the Demand Strong—Some Grades Still Remain Stationary.

Another advance in the price of lumber has been made in the Janesville yards. This follows the advance at the mills. The Wisconsin Valley Lumber association met in Wausau last Friday and advanced the prices on its products 50 cents a thousand. This, of course is founded on causes that effect this city to an equal degree, although it is only on a certain class of material.

Sash, door and blinds will probably remain at the same figure as agreed upon at the latest conference. These prices are strictly maintained, no violation of the agreement having yet transpired.

New Lumber Is Heavier.

There are several reasons for the stiffening in prices on the different lines in the business. First, an increased demand for materials in building throughout the entire state; secondly, the incomplete and broken stocks in hand; thirdly, the increase in freight rates caused by the freshly sawed lumber.

The rate of freight is placed according to the weight of the material, and a large percentage of thoroughly dried lumber having been disposed of, a considerable portion of that now being transported is more freshly cut, and as a consequence is much heavier.

All Stocks Are Short.

Another important influence is the shortage of stocks throughout the state. It is only owing to the lateness of the season that a sweeping rise in prices is not expected before December or January.

However, it is safe to predict that prices for spring trade will certainly be considerably higher than now, for few buildings are being started and the fall trade is nearly over. With such an advance, a rise in wages is certain, and already those for help in the woods have been raised from $2 to $6, and in some cases as much as $10 a month. Almost every feature of the lumber trade shows encouragement, and the promises are for a return to the old activity and prosperity.

MORMON ELDER AT WORK

J. J. Simmons and J. E. Boyce Discuss Their Plans for Winter

J. J. Simmons and J. E. Boyce, the Mormon elders, who were in this city early in the summer, will spend the winter in Appleton. They have previously been at Racine, Waukesha, Eau Claire, Oshkosh and Neenah and have organized a congregation at Fond du Lac. They will do house to house work and make quite a point on the fact that they support themselves.

As to polygamy Elder Simmons made the statement that it had never been practiced by more than 3 per cent. of the Mormon adherents, but had been altogether discontinued since the passage of laws forbidding it. The Mormons do not admit that polygamy is a mistake but obedience to rulers is more essential than religious rites, in their opinion.

TO CURE NERVOUS DYSPEPSIA

To Gain Flesh, to Sleep Well, to Know What Appetite and Good Digestion Mean, Make a Test of Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets.

Interesting Experience of an Indianapolis Gentleman.

No trouble is more common or more misunderstood than nervous dyspepsia. People having to think that their nerves are to blame and are surprised that they are not cured by nerve medicine and spring remedies; the real seat of the mischief is lost sight of; the stomach is the organ to be looked after.

Nervous dyspeptics often do not have any pain whatever in the stomach, nor perhaps any of the usual symptoms of stomach weakness. Nervous dyspepsia shows itself not in the stomach so much as in nearly every other organ; in some cases the heart palpitates and is irregular; in others, the kidneys are affected; in others the bowels are constipated, with headaches; still others are troubled with loss of flesh and appetite, with accumulation of gas, sour risings and heartburn.

Mr. A. W. Sharper of No. 61 Prospect St., Indianapolis, Ind., writes as follows: "A motive of pure gratitude prompts me to write these few lines regarding the new and valuable medicine, Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets. I have been a sufferer from nervous dyspepsia for the last four years; have used various patent medicines and other remedies without any favorable result. They sometimes gave temporary relief until the effects of the medicine wore off. I attributed this to my sedentary habits, being a bookkeeper with little physical exercise, but I am glad to state that the tablets have overcome all these obstacles, for I have gained in flesh, sleep better and am better in every way. The above is written not for notoriety, but is based on actual fact.

Respectfully yours,

A. W. Sharper,

61 Prospect St., Indianapolis, Ind. It is safe to say that Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets will cure any stomach weakness or disease except cancer of stomach. They cure sour stomach, gas, loss of flesh and appetite, sleeplessness, palpitation, heartburn, constipation and headache.

OHIO IS ALL RIGHT.

Senator Hanna says he is satisfied with the outlook in Ohio. So are the republicans throughout the country. There has been no doubt at all, at any time, among democrats or republicans, that Bushnell would be re-elected by a handsome plurality. The democrats never had the faintest hope of carrying the governorship, but they at one time thought they had a chance of securing the senator. Their vehement assertions recently, however, that McLennan is not a candidate for the senatorship prove that they are beginning to despair of capturing the latter office. The fact that the people of Ohio know the election of a democratic legislature would send McLean to the senate, despite his party's protestations that he is not in the race, is going to give that body to the republicans.

WILL CONTEST IT.

The activity of the gold democrats in every state in which campaigns are in progress is attracting great attention throughout the country and is the occasion of much comment. It is perfectly apparent that their strength has greatly developed as compared with last year, while on the other hand, that of the free-silver democrats has been greatly reduced. Not only have the latter lost many of their own men, but they have also lost the support and cooperation of the populists, who, in nearly every case, admit that the fusion of last year was a mistake, and that fusion in present or future years would be a still greater one. It is quite apparent that the gold democrats are heading rapidly toward the control again of the democratic party.

WORK FOR CONGRESS.

Several highly interesting questions will come before congress when it convenes a little over two months hence. The senate will take up the Hawaiian treaty, and probably ratify it. In both branches of congress the Cuban question will be taken up early, and the belligerency resolution will probably be sent to the president. Some plan of currency reform is likely to be suggested to congress by the president and secretary of the treasury, and a measure based upon it may be presented in one or both branches. The Hawaiian and Cuban questions, however, will take precedence of all the other issues in general interest, and these will attract the attention of the entire world.

Disputes as to Alaskan orthography are set at rest by the United States board on geographic names which declares Klondike river, Le Barge lake, Lindeman lake, Lewis river, Tayas instead of Dyes, Teslin river and Nuklukayet. The forms of spelling here set forth will be official from this time.

The Baltimore "Sun," one of the best and ablest democratic papers in the country, says: "The campaign in Maryland this year is one in which defeat will be a greater blessing for the democratic party than victory." It is the same in the other states where elections will be held.

Oshkosh lost $500 trying to run a temperance fair this fall and doubts whether virtue is that much of a reward. But good works never did feel at home in Oshkosh.

New York's first beet sugar factory has gone into operation at Rome. Its work this season will be to convert 20,000 tons of beets into white and brown sugar.

Senator Hanna says the normal condition of this country is prosperity, a saying that should be impressed on the calamity howler's mind.

WISCONSIN SUGAR BEETS

Senator Apple's Experiments in Racine County Successful.

Senator Apple of Racine county has sent samples of sugar beets raised by him to the Experimental station at Madison for analysis. The report returned to him indicated that his beets showed 13.24 per cent. of sugar in juice and 73.5 per cent. of purity. Sugar beets containing over 12 per cent. of sugar in juice and of purity above 80 per cent. are considered adapted to factory purposes. It will be seen that in the former the beets exceed the required per cent. though in the latter essential was a lacking.

CUPID'S WORK WELL DONE

Craig-Tall.

The home of Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Tall of Albion, Wis., was the scene of a pretty wedding on Wednesday, Oct. 6. Rev. F. Vanetta pronounced the words that united for life Miss Mattie Tall and John Craig, both of Albion. The ceremony was performed at 3 o'clock in the presence of a number of relatives and intimate friends. They were attended by Miss Nettie Craig as bridesmaid and Harlow Tall as best man. After the congratulations had been extended a wedding supper was served, after which the young couple left for Milwaukee and other points on a short wedding trip. Many gifts told of the regard of friends for the young people. The young couple have the best wishes of a large circle of friends.

BENEATH DEATH'S CLOUD.

Good Printing...

Is like good painting—it demands and obtains a second glance. The second glance leads to thought about and knowledge of the thing portrayed, and then on to the artist or advertiser.

The kind of printing as well as the kind of painting that it pays to do and to have done is that which obtains this "second glance." Plenty of the other kind!

We are PRINTERS. Our work obtains glances of admiration, and thus leads on to the end desired. We don't do the "other kind." Put our job room to the test.

HUNT AND KING.

Jury After Meditating For Thirty Minutes Brings In Verdict of Guilty In Milton Freight Car Case—Motion Made for Another Hearing of Case.

It took the jury this noon just thirty minutes to decide on a verdict of guilty in the State of Wisconsin vs. Edward King and Frank Hunt. At 12:05 o'clock the case went to the jury and at 12:35 a knock was heard at the door.

On the first ballot the jury stood eleven for conviction and one for acquittal. Twenty minutes was all the time required to bring this one man to vote for conviction. After the jury had filed out of the room and seated themselves, Foreman Charles B. Conrad announced to the court the result of their deliberations.

John Groesbeck attorney for the defendants made a motion to have the court set aside the verdict and grant a new trial, which motion the judge will take under consideration till to-morrow morning.

Evidence for the defense and for the state was heard this morning. Defendant King took the stand at 9 o'clock and declared that on the night of the car robbery—July 24, 1897—he was in Hartford, Wis., and that on the evening of July 26 he was at Watertown. Witnesses to support his story were lacking.

Miss Genevieve Rich, deputy clerk of the circuit court, was the second witness called. She read from the files the present case against John Arquette for receiving the stolen goods. Stenographer Harry Brunson testified as to the proceedings of the previous examination.

J. M. Casey of Chicago, special agent for the Chicago and Northwestern road, was the fourth witness. He stated that when a boy he knew the alleged Hunt and that his right name was James Norton. Although he had not seen Hunt but three times in twenty years he identified him positively as Norton.

Edward King, the other defendant, was not placed on the stand, preferring to remain silent.

JUBILEE OF STATE CHURCH

Episcopalians Will Make an Interesting Anniversary Tomorrow.

About 100 lay delegates and members of the clergy of the Episcopal church will be in Milwaukee from all parts of the state tomorrow, to attend the annual meeting and fiftieth jubilee of the Milwaukee Episcopal diocese on that day and Friday. There will also be a large attendance of other members of the church, for the occasion marks an era of this denomination in Wisconsin.

Perhaps the most interesting feature of the session will be an historical address and opening sermon by the Rev. Fayette Durbin, D. D., rector of Grace church, Madison, who will give a sketch of the work accomplished by the church in the state during the past fifty years. Mr. Durbin is himself a pioneer, being among the oldest resident clergymen of the state. He has been actively engaged in church work and has lived in Wisconsin for over fifty years. His address will be delivered at 10 o'clock Thursday morning.

At the conclusion of the services, the council will adjourn to All Saints' cathedral hall, where it will be organized by Bishop Nicholson, as president.

GRAND DUCHESS TONIGHT.

Calhoun Opera Company Will Present Offenbach's Tuneful Effort Composition.

The ear will be gratified by delightful music rendered by an exceptionally fine company of artists and a full chorus of thirty five people, and the eye will be held with fine scenery and costumes when the Calhoun Opera Company appears at the Myers Grand this evening, in "La Grande Duchesse." This company now in its fifth season is regarded everywhere as one of the foremost light opera companies in the country today. And this is almost entirely due to the energy and determination of Kirkland Calhoun who personally directs all the productions. This season Mr. Calhoun has engaged a much larger company than he hitherto had and his augmented orchestra which will make his productions as near perfection as is possible.

FATALLY HURT IN A RUNAWAY

Fred Smith Falls Under the Wheels of a Loaded Wagon

Fred Smith of Whitewater, eighteen years old, received injuries yesterday noon which will probably prove fatal. While loading grain a shovel fell from the wagon, striking one of the horses, frightening the team, which ran away. Smith in trying to gain control of them fell astride the tongue and finally was jolted from there beneath the wheels, the wagon with its heavy load passing over his breast causing a rupture of the lungs and other internal injuries.

POST HALL TO MOVE
ACROSS THE RIVERG. A. R. LOCATES OVER FIRST NATIONAL BANK.

Change Will Be Made November 1, and the Lease Runs Until 1902—Odd Fellows Have Grown So Rapidly That They Need Their Hall Every Night.

Post hall will move across the river Nov. 1.

From the Odd Fellows' block on North Main street, it will be taken to the First National bank building.

Arrangements were made today for leasing the upper floor of the bank building until 1902. A longer lease would have willingly been made but in 1902 the bank incorporation expires and must be renewed.

The growth of the Odd Fellows has made necessary the use of the upper floors of the Odd Fellows block on North Main street nearly every night in the week. It was difficult to arrange accommodations for the Grand Army and the Odd Fellows under the same roof and W. H. Sargent Post was therefore compelled to seek other quarters. The bank building offers excellent accommodations in a central location and is satisfactory in every respect. The post has received rooms from the Odd Fellows ever since leaving the quarters on the bridge, which afterward became the rooms of the business men's association.

MARKED WOODEN WEDDING

Friends Help Mr. and Mrs. C. P. McLean To Celebrate in Fitting Fashion.

ENOUGH hay rakes, step ladders, chipping bowls and kitchen tables came bumping up the front stairs to Mr. and Mrs. Chas. P. McLean's flat in the Waverly block last evening to make a Milwaukee street display.

Friends of Mr. and Mrs. McLean who had been invited to the evening with them learned that the occasion was their fifth wedding anniversary and marked it with appropriate gifts.

After the tokens of regard had been stored away, whilst tables were brought out and the company tried their skill at progressive whilst. The prizes were won by C. C. McLean and Mrs. Charles D. Stevens while the booby prizes went to Mrs. J. P. Baker and C. D. Stevens. A tempting supper was served after the game. Those who joined in wishing Mr. and Mrs. McLean many happy returns of the day were: Messrs. and Mmes. Stanley B. Smith, J. P. Baker, C. C. McLean, E. J. Smith, C. D. Stevens, C. B. Bostwick, H. H. ## INSURE AGAINST CITY SUITS

Personal Injury Actions Lead the Superior Council to Seek Protection.

The damage suit problem strikes Superior about as it does Janesville, and the common council wants to protect the city against loss by personal injury actions in future.

The finance committee of the council is investigating the feasibility of securing a blanket insurance similar to that which protects street railway companies and other corporations against loss. If any reliable company will guarantee the city from such losses, the city is in a good humor to contract with them.

FOR LITTLE FOLKS.

BESSIE AND HER DOG.

How the Brave Newfoundland Lost His Life Defending His Mistress.

Wednesday morning Ranchman Sam Dodge, who lives 17 miles southwest of Casey, Kan., in the Osage country, went to Vinita on business, and shortly after he had gone Bessie, his 5-year-old daughter, wandered away from home in an attempt to follow him. Mrs. Dodge discovered her absence about two hours after her husband's departure. She made a thorough search of the premises, and, failing to find the child, notified the neighbors of her disappearance. They turned out in force and scoured the prairies all that day and all that night and all the next day searching for the little wanderer. Late Thursday evening an Indian came upon her lying fast asleep just south of Post Oak creek in an old road known as the Whisky trail. Across her body stood a Newfoundland dog, which had always been her companion about the ranch. The dog was torn and bleeding, and near her feet lay the bodies of two wolves. Although her cheeks were stained with tears and covered with dust Bessie was unharmed. She and her protector were taken back to her home, a distance of 12 miles from where they were found, where the dog died of his wounds that night. He was given a decent burial, and Sam Dodge ordered a marble monument, which will be placed at the head of the faithful animal's grave.—New York World.

The Toys Talk of the World.

"I should like," said the vase from the china store, "To have seen the world a little more."

"When they carried me here, I was wrapped up tight, But they say it is really a lovely sight."

"Yes," said a little plaster bird, "That is exactly what I have heard."

"There are thousands of trees, and, oh, what a sight It must be when the candles are all alight!"

The fat top rolled on his other side.

"It is not in the least like that," he cried.

"Except myself and the kite and ball, None of you knows of the world at all."

"There are houses and pavements hard and red, And everything spins around," he said.

"Sometimes it goes slowly and sometimes fast, And often it stops with a bump at last."

The wooden donkey nodded his head.

"I had heard the world was like that," he said.

The kite and the ball exchanged a smile, But they did not speak. It was not worth while.

—Katherine Pyle in St. Nicholas.

Torchlights From Cattails.

This is the time of year for torchlight processions. Just now the cattails or rushes in the swamps are brown and ripe, ready for the picking. Boys who wish to celebrate any event or to hold a striking initiation in some of their societies should gather a great bundle of the cattails and store them in some dry attic. In a few weeks' time they will have grown almost dry enough to crumble off and flutter away in the wind. Now dip them in kerosene oil, and when the procession is ready to start light them all at once. They will blaze up quite suddenly and burn for a long time with a bright, flaring light much better than the ordinary tin torches. For a boy's procession there is nothing like them.—Chicago Record.

The Cobble Season.

The horse chestnut trees are catching it nowadays at the hands of small boys, or rather from stones and clubs impelled from their hands, for the cobble season is at hand. Cobble is a curious game. The horse chestnut is suspended by a string which passes through a gimpel hole and is knotted. One boy holds out his cobble at arm's length, and his opponent whacks it with his cobble. The nut which remains unbroken adds a tally to the other cobble, and when that is smashed it adds two to the successful youth's chestnut. And so it goes on until a peculiarly tough nut may get a record of several hundred.—Worcester Gazette.

How Bad It Ached.

A dear little boy about 4 years old had the toothache. But he had a great deal of self control. Although he was so little, he was a very brave boy. He sat upon mamma's bed, not saying a word, although one could tell by his dismal expression how much he suffered.

Mamma was very sorry.

"Does your tooth hurt so very much, Earle?" she asked.

"Hurt!" he exclaimed. "You bet it hurts! It just beats the cars, mamma." —Brooklyn Eagle.

The Doll Edna Wants.

Edna wants a baby brother. She says: "A baby would be so nice to wheel around in a carriage, mamma. Dolls are always getting broken when the carriage tips over."—Philadelphia Times.

Two Denver boys have lately floated the stars and stripes by kites a mile above the summit of Pike's peak and claim that it is the highest point ever attained by Old Glory.

TEN YEARS YOUNGER.

A Happy Husband's Story.

"My wife," writes a fond husband, "looks ten years younger since she began to take Dr. Greene's Nervura. She was in a terrible condition. She began to be nervous several years ago. I did not notice it at first, but she gradually grew worse. After a little she could not sleep. She lost her appetite. Then she became irritable and morose, and from the sweetest and best tempered woman in the world she became shrewish and hysterical. Finally she began to fade away. You know there is a difference between women who grow old naturally and women who fade out from the effects of disease. I think I am as devoted and patient as any husband, but I must confess that my wife's unfortunate condition was a sore trial. I do not know what would have become of us if things had gone on as they were. The change for the better came suddenly. There was a complete transformation within a few days. Sound sleep and a hearty appetite came as nervousness and irritability went. I did not know what the matter was until she told me that she had been impressed by the sincerity and common sense of Dr. Greene's advertisements, and had been taking his Nervura. From misery and despondency she is now the happiest person in the world, with the possible exception of myself."

Dr. Greene's Nervura, THE GREAT BLOOD AND NERVE REMEDY,

Is the great health restorer. To suffering womankind it is a priceless blessing. How sad is the sight of a fading woman! Who has not seen the sparkling eyes lose their lustre, the roses and lilies fade from the cheeks, and elasticity of step and gracefulness of figure give way to repulsive haggishness! With departing beauty go sweetness of temper and charm of speech, and nothing is left of the sufferer but the ghastly contrast with her former self. The world would be gloomy indeed were there no light in this dark picture. Nature is forgiving. In Dr. Greene's Nervura she has found a means by which women may regain their lost health and beauty, and assume their rightful positions in the spheres in which they move, as both ornaments and inspirations.

Dr. Greene's Nervura acts directly upon the nerves and blood, which are the life. Exhaustion, irritability and moroseness are banished, and the circulation is strengthened and purified like a mountain stream. The office of Dr. Greene's remedies, 148 State St., Chicago, Ill., is open to you, and skilled physicians are at your service with consultation, examination and advice absolutely free, personally or by letter.

HE WORRIED ABOUT IT.

Then the weather was murky, he gazed at the sky, And he worried about it. He watched the gray clouds drift so curiously by, And he worried about it. "I'll let it will rain," he would say to a friend, All manner of dire disaster portend. His life was one fret from beginning to end, For he worried about it.

He had a few troubles, as humankind will, And he worried about it. The good he befitting and ill, And he worried about it. His health was right perfect, but then, if you please, He fancied he had mostly every disease And marveled his ailments in columns of threes, And he worried about it.

No doubt when he entered the world long ago He worried about it. As a matter of fact, when he married, you know, He worried about it, And when he departs from this scene of despair And mounts on light wings through ethereal air, When ushered right up to a heavenly chair, He'll worry about it. —St. Paul Dispatch.

THEIR SURPRISE.

Sue Bertram was always a delicate girl. Her father, the rich Mr. Hiram Bertram of Albany Heights, proved an overindulgent parent, who gratified every whim of his only child. Her mother had died when she was an infant, and servants and governess stood in mortal awe of the little tyrant, who ruled the household while she yet lay in the cradle.

As Sue grew into girlhood she turned out to be a frail young thing, whose slightest wishes were never crossed. She was pretty, after a fashion, as far as ethereal blonds can lay claim to beauty. Her hair was like spun gold. Her face was small and white as a lily. Just tall enough to accentuate her exceeding slenderness, people took her to be sickly. Nevertheless Sue was lively as any girl of her age and desperately in love with Jules Leroux, a young westerner whom she had met at a Jersey watering place.

Jules was the superintendent of an eastern railway, with every chance to rise to the highest place in the gift of the company. His duties frequently brought him to Albany. He had nothing beyond his salary, which was adequate to support a family, but Mr. Bertram, the banker, looked favorably upon his union with his adored daughter.

Jules was the superintendent of an eastern railway, with every chance to rise to the highest place in the gift of the company. His duties frequently brought him to Albany. He had nothing beyond his salary, which was adequate to support a family, but Mr. Bertram, the banker, looked favorably upon his union with his adored daughter.

With Marga's coming Sue's jealousy had once more a definite object. Perhaps the sly maid feigned to be betrothed to the lieutenant to disarm her (Sue's) suspicions. She must set a trap for them—for him and Marga.

Lieutenant Tomkins, Miss Vandermeulen had said, was in Washington, making arrangements for a long leave of absence. Thither Sue was determined to go. She would find the young officer whom she had never seen and ask him about his coming marriage with Marga. She told her husband of the journey she planned. He offered to accompany her, but she said that she preferred to go alone. She gave his consent reluctantly, but Sue, blinded by jealousy, thought his reluctance was only feigned.

Sue was driven to the station. She paced the platform impatiently. The train was half an hour late. Suddenly, just as the monster engine puffed into the station, a hand clutched her arm tightly.

"You are deceiving me! With whom are you going?"

Sue turned quick as a flash and looked into the pale, distorted countenance of her husband. In a moment she understood him. He whom she loved distractingly was jealous of her!

"Would you kill me?" she whispered, hardly able to repress tears of joy.

"You and him!" groaned Leroux, drawing a revolver from his pocket.

"Jules," she broke forth in joyous tones, forgetful of her surroundings and the fact that the train was just then leaving for Washington, "tell me that you love me, not Marga? I was going to hunt up the lieutenant to whom she is engaged. I was going to ask him!"

"Hush!" said softly the happy husband, his face radiant with unutterable love. "I love only you, my wife, my all!"

He lifted her into a waiting carriage. "By the way," he continued, as he wound his arm around her waist, "your father has telegraphed that he will arrive tonight. We will go down to meet him, Sue. Do you think he will see a change in us?" —St. Louis Republic.

Our Sales on

will be larger this season than last, as we have sold several hundred of them, and their reputation for superiority is now established. We believe them to be

THE FINEST FINISHED,
MOST ECONOMICAL, AND STONGEST HEATING BASE BURNERS ON THE MARKET.

They all give perfect satisfaction, and carload orders for them will be a frequent occurrence.

Their Flue Construction Gives Three Radiating Surfaces,

in place of two, as on other stoves uses all the heat and prevents waste of coal. The Favorite gives more heat for less coal than any other stove in the market.

The Wonder
Air Tight Stoves :::

We had to refuse orders for this stove during the latter part of last season—couldn't get enough to supply the trade.

No stove in the market
Heats so quickly or economically.

Barns wood and holds fire thirty-six hours. This year the WONDER has been improved so it can be shut off more positively. It heats a big room in any kind of weather.
